What is Host Responsibility?

Adult Host Responsibility is a Maryland Law that holds an adult who knowingly and intentionally serves/provides an alcoholic beverage to a person he/she knows, or reasonably should know, is under the age of 21, liable for the person served and to any other person for damages resulting from the host's service of alcohol. It can even extend to adults and homeowners who are not on the premises and/or did not provide the alcohol.

65% of kids who drink report getting alcohol from family and friends.

State Laws and Consequences...

- Buying¹, furnishing or allowing youth under the age of 21 to consume or possess alcohol is illegal². Adults are civilly and legally liable.
- Adults could receive a $1000 fine for the first offense, a $1500 fine for the second offense. (An offense counts as one under 21 drinker; additional under age drinkers can count as additional offenses.)
- Servers/sellers of alcohol to are required to protect an intoxicated person from harming themselves or others. A server will be liable if negligence is proven.
- Homeowner and auto insurance companies may drop a policy.
- Home or not home, aware or unaware of the party you could be sued for:
 - Personal Injury
 - Alcohol Poisoning
 - Sexual Assault
 - Vandalism
 - Violence
 - Car Crashes: Death, Injuries and Car Damage

¿Cuál es la Responsabilidad del Anfitrión?

Adult Host Responsibility (Responsabilidad del Anfitrión Adulto) es una Ley del Estado de Maryland, que estipula que un adulto que a sabiendas e intencionalmente sirve/provee una bebida alcohólica a una persona que sabe o sospecha que es menor de 21 años, es responsable de daños a la persona servida y a cualquiera otra persona afectada por habersele servido alcohol. Hasta podría extenderse a adultos y dueños de casa que no estén presentes en la propiedad y/o no sirvieron alcohol.

El 65% de los jóvenes que beben reportan haber recibido el alcohol de familiares y amigos.

Leyes del Estado y Consecuencias...

- Comprar, suministrar o permitir que los jóvenes menores de 21 años consuman o posean alcohol es ilegal. Los adultos son civil y legalmente responsables.
- Los adultos pueden recibir una multa de $1.000 por la primera ofensa, y una multa de $1.500 por la segunda ofensa. (Una ofensa cuenta como un bebedor menor de 21 años; bebedores adicionales pueden contar como ofensas adicionales.)
- Las personas que sirven/venden alcohol tienen que proteger a una persona intoxicada de dañarse a sí misma o a otros. El servidor será responsable si se prueba negligencia.
- Las compañías de seguros de viviendas y automóviles pueden discontinuar una póliza.
- Esté o no esté en casa, sepa o no sepa de la fiesta, usted podría ser demandado/a por:
 - Daños Personales
 - Envenenamiento de Alcohol
 - Asalto Sexual
 - Vandalismo
 - Violencia
 - Accidentes de Automóvil: Muerte, Lesiones y Daños al Vehículo
